

4) Manually signed invoice copy authenticated by a digital signatures to be given were customers are unable to retrieve the digitally signed invoices

As many of the customers may not be having appropriate Information Technology infrastructure to accept or receive the digitally signed invoices. Therefore, in such a case manually signed invoice copy that is authenticated by digital signature can be given and the same can be considered as valid document to avail the CENVAT Credit.

[Circular No. 1039/27/2016-CX dated 21.07.2016]