

Two days Workshop on Impact of GST on Manufacturing Industry

The Goods and Services Tax (GST) – the biggest tax reform attempted by India – is now just a step away from its realisation.

GST is not just a tax reform, but it is a business reform and it will change the way businesses function.

As the saying goes, "Investment in knowledge pays the best interest..!! Well here in an opportunity to invest your valuable time & gain a better understanding on the Impact of GST on Manufacturing industry..!!!!"
